BOZKIR ARSLANI CELALEDİN

Khwarazmshah and the Mongol Empire were the two ruling forces of their era. While Genghis Khan's attack on the Chinese Empire was underway, his gaze also turned towards the lands of the Khwarazmshahs. Although Sultan Alaaddin sits on the Khwarazmshah throne, most of his military forces swore allegiance to Türgan Hatun, Sultan Alaaddin's mother. Türgan Hatun does not hesitate to use her influence to the fullest as she is determined to rule the entire empire. The heir to the throne Celaledin, a wise, young, famed soldier, and beloved of his people is far away from these conflicts, leading his struggles against the enemies of the Khwarazmshahs. He believes that Genghis Khan plans to subjugate the whole world and that a counter-offensive is the only way out. His brother, Uzlak Shah, in envy of the throne himself, is an obstacle that springs in front of him at every corner, along with Kutlu Bike, an imprisoned captive with whom he will fall in love. In addition, one of the primary targets of the Assassins', who acted on behalf of Genghis Khan and whose aim was to cause strife in the lands of the Khwarazmshahs, was Celaledin.

#ETKİLEYİCİ

Leyla, a renowned social media influencer, becomes embroiled in a scandal with Emre Kunda, a popular football player. When Emre remains silent on the allegations, Leyla unfairly becomes the target of an aggressive bullying campaign orchestrated by the press and society. This gripping narrative unfolds as a testament to a woman's unwavering survival instincts; Leyla refuses to back down in the face of fear, staunchly defending her values while challenging society's entrenched gender roles. The show, a binge-worthy sensation, delves into the intricate world of social media, scrutinizes societal expectations placed on women and men, and explores the formidable influence wielded by the press and media over the masses.

NEVER IN FRONT OF THE KIDS

ÇOCUKLAR DUYMASIN

Never in Front of the Kids! is a TV show about the conflicts of an ordinary upper-middle class family. The disputes between the father and the mother actually symbolize man's fight against modernism. This is a fight, but a hilarious one! Never in Front of the Kids! is about the small issues that families must face in real life, like making ends meet at the end of the month, raising children, husband and wife problems, business lives, friends, neighbors and so on. This show is about the marriage of a "real" man to an "ideal" woman. The show is told through the eyes of the husband, who quarrels with everyone and about everything. Everyone seems to be against this "tough guy", but he is an honest man. Even though he sometimes speaks tactlessly, he never lies. He may not be ideal, but he is handsome and reliable. Never in Front of the Kids! has a distinctive quality: it is fun, yet informative and educational. In Turkey, every social issue that was mentioned in this show reached all of the nation. It isn't just a show to watch, laugh and forget. It is a show to remember.

BENİM İÇİN ÜZÜLME

Sinan's life changes with the death of his father, during a boat trip he took with his father and his father's close friend Şahin. Unable to cope with the feeling of guilt he felt, he left the village, but returned after completing his education and military service. Şahin, who feels great gratitude to Sinan for saving him, offers him the position of general manager in his company. Sinan does not accept the offer at first, but after meeting Şahin's charming wife Bahar, things change and the old love between the two young people flares up.

On the other hand, Bahar's brother Harun and Sinan's brother Niyazi fall in love with seasonal worker Buke, leading to a violent fight between the two families. Despite all objections, Buke and Niyazi get engaged.

However, on the same day, a great tragedy occurs when Buke's troubled cousin accidentally kills Niyazi and Sinan's younger brother. Niyazi's mother holds Buke responsible for this loss.

This death drags each member of the family into different struggles and pain. Amidst this chaos, Bahar and Sinan's dangerous love deepens, adding an exciting dimension to this gripping drama.

Although Yusuf has nothing to do with politics, he too gets his share from the chaotic martial atmosphere that rages around him.

After a series of unfortunate events, the young man wakes up at a mental hospital. Here, Yusuf meets Menekşe, who has been living there for some time, battling the inner demons from her past. As the two undergo their treatment in the same hospital, they also grow affectionate toward each other. While this love causes their destinies to cross paths, Menekşe is also harassed daily by Müfit, the bully caregiver of the hospital.

Eventually, the hardships the two youths endure along with the love that flourishes between them lead the two to their respective rebirths.

GÜZ SANCISI

The story takes place in Istanbul during the September 1955 pogrom. Behçet is the only son of a father who is closely related to the government and bureaucracy, due to his strong influence in Antakya. While he is studying as an assistant researcher in the faculty of law in Istanbul, he falls under the sway of the extreme nationalist movement, as a result of his raising and the influential role model of his father. The only thing that causes Behçet to stumble in the movement she joins is Elena, whom he secretly watches from his house. Elena is a Greek prostitute, exploited by her grandmother after her mother abandoned them. Elena is aware that she is observed by Behçet and falls in love with him. They get close to each other, which does not please Behçet's father and his political party. The death of his friend Suat and his father's role with party leaders to destroy dissident voices push Behçet to reconsider his political affiliation. Behçet finds Elena dead after being hit by the activist. He takes her and remembers the words she said while lying on the bed in her apartment.

DIGITAL CAPTIVITY

DİJİTAL ESARET

In a near future, our story unfolds in a Digital Crime Prison where convicted individuals, addicted to digital devices, serve their sentences. Instead of traditional imprisonment, they spend six months in a rehabilitation center located in a paradise-like setting by the Aegean Sea. The prisoners face a challenge: earn 80 points through various games to win freedom, with only the top three succeeding. Internet access is a coveted reward, but using points for it means sacrificing freedom. Subplots include prisoners grappling with the choice between internet and freedom, and a porn-addicted man refusing to exchange internet rights for sex. Ultimately, mastering internet usage determines who gains freedom and who remains in confinement.

DAIRY FARM PHILOSOPHER ISTANBUL

MANDIRA FİLOZOFU - İSTANBUL

Mustafali is a man liberated from all ambitions, living in Çökertme Cove, keeping to his own life style. But due to the sickness of his father, who had left him and his mother years ago, he had to come to Istanbul. Mustafali's philosophy will perplex Istanbul, a city that had been living happily on its own, believing its own truths before Mustafali came along.

Where had did this weird man come from? Nobody had been able to defeat Istanbul before; who was this man to make fun of this giant with its twenty million people?

Mustafali, a man who is against money, accumulation, setting targets, success and living like life won't end, will be disputing everything we know to be true in this fun story. Since he does not see success as a reward, he does not submit to the threat of failure. He questions life in international companies, plaza offices, secure apartment complexes, university cafeterias and student houses.

He tells us how to stand against the modern world, a world that wants to sell us more things by creating a fear of the future. Mustafali calls out to the young people of the world:

"I'm against young people being straightened out."

ÇOCUKLAR DUYMASIN

Never in Front of the Kids! is a TV show about the conflicts of an ordinary upper-middle class family. The disputes between the father and the mother actually symbolize man's fight against modernism. This is a fight, but a hilarious one! Never in Front of the Kids! is about the small issues that families must face in real life, like making ends meet at the end of the month, raising children, husband and wife problems, business lives, friends, neighbors and so on. This show is about the marriage of a "real" man to an "ideal" woman. The show is told through the eyes of the husband, who quarrels with everyone and about everything. Everyone seems to be against this "tough guy", but he is an honest man. Even though he sometimes speaks tactlessly, he never lies. He may not be ideal, but he is handsome and reliable. Never in Front of the Kids! has a distinctive quality: it is fun, yet informative and educational. In Turkey, every social issue that was mentioned in this show reached all of the nation. It isn't just a show to watch, laugh and forget. It is a show to remember.

WILL YOU MARRY ME

This is a show that is a trend for the last ten years where people come to find the love of their lives or a matching partner to marry. The candidates on the show express their expectations of a partner they desire to marry and almost every day they get the chance to meet those who are interested in them until they find the right candidate. The concept is simple: A candidate who is already on the show is asked to join the special platform next to the hosts and waits for that special moment to meet his or her soon-to-be partner. The first meeting and small talk take about 5 to 10 minutes and they need to ask several questions in order to get to know the person in that short amount of time. After the small talk, the hosts start the decision round and at the end the candidate has to decide if she or he is interested in that person or if they want to wait for new candidates. The audience gets to see the entire progress of the relationship, and in case everything works out for both parties the engagement and wedding take place on the show. This show is known for its high ratings and its loyal audience who follow their favorite candidates through the first dates, heartbreaking life stories and breakups until they find the right partner to marry.

VERSES STORIES FROM QUR'AN

Safieddine, The Judge's grandson had grown to become a youngman mastering the art of bow and arrow. One day while he was playing, he hit a dove with a bow. His grandfather blamed him for injuring such a gentle creature, but while examining the wound, they realized a letter written in Latin words has been attached to the bird. Strange as it may seem, the letter revealed delicate secrets, details about the kingdom and people's lives and movements across the market place. It was sent from a spy to the army commander of the Franks. Immediately, the governing council of Prince Khalid al-Khalifa and the Judge gathered along with the Head of the Police, who was assigned the task to decrypt the mysteries of the message before the kingdom is under attack by the army of the Franks. And stories went on... stories of As-Sahabah, the Prophet's companions in light of verses from the Holy Quran.

MARVELOUS STORIES FROM QUR'AN

Judge Safieddine is a wise thoughtful man, and wise is called a man who has a good heart and a kind soul. When Salma, his daughter, became a mother of two, Safa and Safaa, he opted to leave her the freedom of raising her children as she sees fit; assuming she will follow the same values and principles he nurtured in her, but at the same time, he was watching closely...

He noticed the children are spoiled. They seem arrogant, conceited and undisciplined. It was the moment for him to interfere with stories to fill their souls and open their young hearts.

Today I will tell you a story- a Marvelous Story from the Qur'an, he told Salma and the two grandchildren, 'and just as I did with Salma when she was young, every day I will come with a new story, a piece of wisdom to instill ethical behavior and good manners.'

'I know them well,' yelled Salma, 'These are new stories that you have never heard before. Do not rush a storyteller,' he answered gently, as Wadida politely kept them company, and there, the story began...

WOMEN STORIES FROM QUR'AN

Salma is the only daughter of judge Safieeddine, a tough-minded yet a soft-hearted-wise man known by his wisdom and integrity and integrity. He lost his wife a long time ago, and salma, a motherless child at a tender age, was raised by a caretaker named Wadida. Salma had always dream of being a boy, for she had always thought girls are so belittled and unrecognized. Being a boy was so prevalent that Salma masqueraded in a soldier's clothing to take part in military trainings and exercises. When the story was disclosed to her father, he resolved to reveal to his daughter the significance of women and the value of their role in life and society. Through women storifs from Qur'an, he opened her eyes and her heart to the most inspiring tales of legendary women – Eve, the mother of humanity, was his first story...

HUMAN STORIES FROM QUR'AN

Following the great success of "Human stories from Qur'an" during the holy month of Ramadan, here comes another series, restating all the more rich and heartening stories from the holy Qur'an. Inspired by epic tales of human-heroes and carrying a great weight of life notions and human values, these are "human stories from Qur'an", another major work by cedars art production, as part of his "stories from Qur'an". Each episode deals with one story, but all stories are beautifully interlaced by the narration of one main character, Jalaleddine, the sea sailor who fills his empty time with story telling. When the young boy Ziad sneaks into Jalaleddine's ship, the captain found in him his lost-and-found precious yearning to retrace all such stories, while helping Ziad in his quest to find his long lost parents. The captain is aided by Loulou and Marjane, both are sailors with a cynical and capricious sense of humor who seem to cause a lot of trouble to Ziad, but in the end, all characters deliver a work of genius with their light humor, genuine performance and indisputable charisma throughout the whole stories.

ANIMAL STORIES FROM QUR'AN

The series revolve around the stories of Animals that accompanied prophets and were at their service, undergoing exciting events and were the main themes of miracles in Quranic verses, such as the CROW, sent by God to Cain, to show him how to hide the wrong doing and teach him how to bury his brother Abel, and the story of the Bird of Abraham that the prophet had slaughtered and dispersed all over the mountain then sought its revival and she returned to him pleading, and the story of the Dog who has lived the experience of death, over three hundred and nine years along with the People of the Cave ...

And other animals that had accompanied the prophets throughout their lives and had the chance to play a significant role in their stories. The Series, shed light on these creatures that have been lost in what seems to have been the greater light of prophets. This resulted in the Qossas elHiyawan fil Qur'an (Animal Stories From Qur'an). But how were the lives of these animals before they met these prophets? How the Quranic verses were revealed to them and what these verses have changed in them?
